IN-PERSON COURSES YEAR 1

GOING ON TO PERFECTION

Once you have laid the basic foundation truths in your life, how can you now grow into spiritual maturity? In this module, you will be introduced to the Tabernacle of Moses. As we learn about the significance and symbolism of various areas and each piece of furniture, you will be amazed to see God's plan for redemption and sanctification unfold powerfully in your life, and you will be on your way, not just to become a stronger Christian, but also to grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ.

CULTURAL MANDATE I (Theology & Concepts)

When God created man and put him in the Garden of Eden, He gave him the responsibility "to tend and keep it" (Gen. 2:15). In Latin, that is the word cultura from which the English word "culture" is derived. Long before the Great Commandment and the Great Commission were given, man was entrusted with the Cultural Mandate, to create and do culture in the world that God had placed him in. But doing culture involves engaging a broken-down, fallen world, with all its immorality, greed and temptations. How can we do that without losing our conviction and consecration? How do we bring Christ into culture when we are supposed to be separated from everything worldly? Is innocence or naivety a Christian virtue that preserves purity? In this first instalment of a 2-module series, you will learn about the theology and important concepts of the Cultural Mandate.

CULTURAL MANDATE II Cultural Mandate 2 (Relevance & Influence)

Eminent theologian John Stott calls this the "Great Paradox of Holiness", that the God who has saved us and sets us apart is now sending us into a sinful and fallen world. Stott says that every church and every Christian must know how to walk in "holy worldliness" — a holiness that is not unworldly, and a worldliness that is not unholy. Holy worldliness is the intentional living of the life of God in a broken-down world, amidst a fallen people. Engaging culture will invariably involve the marketplace of society, especially in the realm of popular culture (or "pop culture"). As Christians, how should we handle and engage the arenas of music, movies, novels, fashion, sports, arts and entertainment? How do we practically usher in the character and presence of God in a postmodern world that seems to be against anything moral or godly? In this second instalment of a 2-module series, you will learn what the practical aspects of the Cultural Mandate are.

IN-PERSON COURSES YEAR 2

SERMON ON THE MOUNT 1 (Beatitudes)

The Sermon on the Mount is the most famous and powerful exposition Jesus had ever preached. The three chapters from Matthew 5-7 may take only 10 minutes to read through, but a lifetime to study, understand and live out. In SOTM 1 (Beatitudes), you will learn about the attitudes of the kingdom. Your attitudes are the "heart" within your heart. It is the real you! Your attitudes are so sacred that no one (not even God!) can overrule it. It is the most genuine expression of your perspective about God and of your love for God. In this course, we will see Jesus outlining the eight kingdom attitudes that will guarantee the approval and blessings of God in our lives.

SERMON ON THE MOUNT 2 (Kingdom Righteousness)

St. Augustine described the Sermon on the Mount as “a perfect standard for the Christian life”. Dietrich Bonhoeffer’s classic, The Cost of Discipleship, is based on this sermon. Martin Lloyd-Jones’ greatest life work was the Studies in the Sermon on the Mount. In SOTM 2 (Kingdom Righteousness), you will learn what it means to be salt and light, and Jesus’ definition of righteousness in God’s kingdom. You will understand what Jesus means when He wanted believers to exceed “the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees”. You will cover issues concerning anger, divorce and remarriage, and the inner righteousness God wants to see in the hearts of Christians.

SERMON ON THE MOUNT 3 (Kingdom Living)

If one truly embraces and understands the Sermon on the Mount, one will never embrace shallow or superficial Christianity ever again. In SOTM 3 (Kingdom Living), you will get into the mind of Jesus Christ on His thinking regarding genuine kingdom living. How could your devotion and spiritual discipline bring the approval and blessings of God? You will understand the consequences of the decisions and actions we make in life. You will find clarity on what are the true treasures, visions, devotion and ambitions of genuine kingdom living. This is the final instalment of the 3-part SOTM series.
